Artists Abound at SPPS!

This weekend our school participated in the Archdiocesan Catholic Arts Fair at Holy Souls School in Denver. Ms. Jackimiec chose artwork from 33 students to enter into the art fair. Five of our students won awards for their artwork!

McKenzie's watercolor painting won "Best of Show" (best 5th grade artwork in the Archdiocese!) Congratulations!

Trinity- 4th grade

Saffana- 8th grade

Anne- 6th grade

Frank- 1st grade

Did you miss the art show this weekend? The 33 art pieces submitted to the Catholic Art Show are on display in the upstairs hallway this week. Thank you, Ms. Jackimiec, for all you do to help our students develop their artistic gifts!

Destination Imagination Team- 8th in Colorado!

During Easter Break, our first SPPS D.I. Team competed at the state competition. Their project promoting literacy won 8th place in state! We are so proud of you!

Thank you to Ellie Titarenko for beginning creative this initiative at SPPS!

Culture Day

Students are enjoying learning about their countries through study, song and dance. Below are the assigned countries and the costumes we are encouraging the students to wear. If students can not wear the native costume, they can dress in the colors of their country flag.

Preschool/PreK/Kinder- Mexico

Girls- long, flowing skirt (red, green or white) and a white blouse.
Boys- black pants or jeans, with a white shirt.
Optional: sombrero or cowboy hat

1st/2nd grades - Polynesian Islands

Girls- grass skirt & brightly, colored shirt.
Boys- black athletic shorts and a red shirt.

3rd/4th grades - Bolivia

Girls- brightly colored, patterned skirt with a solid, colored blouse. Optional: colorful cardigan
Boys- Black pants, white shirt, and colorful vest or poncho. Optional: Black cowboy hat

5th/6th grades- China

More information coming soon- we are trying to help with these costumes.

7th/ 8th grades- Russia

Students in the elective music class will be performing the song and dance. Only they will need a formal costume; more information will be coming about costumes. All other 7th and 8th graders may come dressed in the color of the Russian flag.
